Shabbat Service: Sinai Second Fridays

Friday, February 10 | 6:15 PM

In-person, Zoom, and Live Streamed on our Website

Services will be led by Rabbi Weinberg and Rabbi Greene.

Music will be led by Scott Kumer and Toby Pechner.

Join your Sinai family for conversation, community, and a chance to learn from a number of prominent local speakers on a variety of current events and topics. Age-appropriate activities will be provided for elementary aged children during the speaker portion of the service. A Shabbat dinner will follow.

Welcome Rabbi Dr. David Barak-Gorodetsky as our guest speaker.

Rabbi Dr. Barak-Gorodetsky is head of The Ruderman Program for Jewish American Studies, Department of Jewish History, University of Haifa and an Israel Institute Visiting Fellow at the Divinity School of The University of Chicago.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Chicago Sinai Congregation is committed to being a House of Prayer for All People. Our congregation reflects the rich tapestry of humanity: people of all ages, people of all races, people of diverse religious backgrounds, individuals possessing a wide range of physical ability and gender identities. We constantly strive to be a welcoming community to all.
