

CHICAGO SINAI CONGREGATION

Shabbat Information

Friday, June 17, 2022

Whether you are joining us in-person, on our website, or on Zoom, we are so happy to celebrate Shabbat together.

Mazal Tov to William “Josh” Weisfuse and Cyiera Souza on the naming of their child, Avery Gray Weisfuse.

The Shabbat candle blessing and Kiddush will be led by Avery’s grandparents, Martin and Doreen Weisfuse.

We invite you to participate fully in our services. We hope you feel comfortable in our sanctuary as your authentic religious self. We are proud of our inclusive prayer book, the UPB III, which translates and transliterates every Hebrew piece of liturgy.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Chicago Sinai Congregation is proudly committed to being a true House of Prayer for All People. Our congregation reflects the rich tapestry of humanity: people of all ages, people of all races, people of diverse religious backgrounds, individuals possessing a wide range of physical ability and gender identities. It is important to affirm publicly that we are a welcoming home for everyone in the LGBTQ community, to those families where not everyone identifies as Jewish, and to those in uncertain places on their spiritual journey. We are constantly striving to learn how we can provide the most meaningful welcome to every single human being created in the divine image.

Land Acknowledgement

Chicago Sinai Congregation sits on land that intersects with the aboriginal homelands of several tribal nations: the Council of the Three Fires: the Potawatomi, Odawa, and Ojibwe Nations; the Illinois Confederacy: the Peoria and Kaskaskia Nations; and the Myaamia, Wea, Thakiwaki, and Meskwaki Nations. The Ho-Chunk, Menominee, Kiikaapoi, and Mascouten Nations also call the region of northeast Illinois home. Indigenous people continue to live in this area and celebrate their traditional teachings and lifeways. As a Chicago institution, it is Sinai's responsibility to acknowledge this historical context and build reciprocal relationships with the tribal nations on whose lands we are situated.
