Mi Shebeirach

Cantor Robbie Solomon; text adapted by Rabbi Limmer

Mi She-beir-rach a-vo-tei-nu

Mi She-beir-rach i-mo-tei-nu

Yish-lach r'fu'ah sh'lei'mah l'chol cho'lei ha-o-lam

[May the one who blessed our fathers, and the one who blessed our mothers, send complete healing to all those in the world who suffer]

In this time of reflection

May our hearts know

How to help our lov'd ones

When they suffer so

And with words of compassion

Peaceful as the dove

May they always be sheltered with our words of love

When kind words have been spoken

May they ease your pain

When your spirit is broken

May you be made whole again

And with blessings abounding

As the stars above

May you always be sheltered in the arms of love

In true words of love there is such tenderness

In the arms of love may we be ever blessed [then to Hebrew]
